WHAT DOES NEEDHAM BANK DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?
Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?
The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and account balances
- Transaction history and payment history
- Credit history and credit scores.

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How?
All financial companies need to share customer's personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customer's personal information; the reasons Needham Bank chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Who we are

| Who is providing this notice? | Needham Bank |

What we do

| How does Needham Bank protect my personal information? | To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.
All of our operational and data processing systems are located in secure environments that are protected from unauthorized third parties. |
|---|---|
| How does Needham Bank collect my personal information? | We collect your personal information, for example, when you
- open an account or apply for a loan
- pay your bills or use your credit or debit card
- make a wire transfer.
We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies. |
| Why can’t I limit all sharing? | Federal law gives you the right to limit only
- sharing for affiliates’ everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you
State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for your rights under state law. |
